

Yoursay Operation and usage

This facility is intended to provide a platform for members to express their view on anything U3A. There is a new button on the left of the Home page and this will take you to the page of postings. To submit a new post simply then click on the 'New Post' button in the heading of that page. you will then need to provide your name and email address together with your comment. We reserve the right not to post any comment which is deemed unsuitable.

Please that your your Name will be published but your email address will only be used for verification and will not be published. Anonymous comments will not be posted, but will be forwarded to the Chairman.