

We were picked up in Verwood and joined a very friendly group for the journey to King's Lynn, North Norfolk. The hotel, Knights Hill, was excellent. We had a large room with a balcony and a splendid view over the garden.

The following morning was spent walking around King's Lynn, a very interesting medieval town. Later in the afternoon we arrived in Thursford where we wandered slowly through a beautiful snowy grotto, warmed up with a hot chocolate, then into the huge theatre for the fantastic 3 hour Christmas show performed by brilliant dancers, singers, a comedian, etc., a thoroughly professional group of entertainers.

Next day we set off for home via a different route arriving in Verwood at 4.30 pm. An excellent 3 day trip.

Just writing to say what a wonderful time I had on our Christmas trip. The hotel was really lovely, the show was magical and the journey quite pleasant, lovely crowd of people and I thought everything was so well organised. Well done to all who arranged it. I would recommend it to anyone.

We both enjoyed the trip and found the hotel excellent, apart from the water problem.

The show was truly spectacular and we would recommend it to anyone who hasn't been.

We also enjoyed looking around King's Lynn.
